Report description:

Consumer credit rebounded in Hungary in 2024, compared to 2023 which was a challenging year for consumers due to high inflation and increased borrowing costs, with interest rates peaking. However, 2024 brought more favourable conditions, including lower interest rates, reduced APR, and an improved financial outlook. This has led to a renewed willingness for consumers to apply for loans. Additionally, delayed purchases and the launch of new home renovation and energy-efficient transformation prog...
