Report description:

Card lending remains the largest type of consumer credit in Norway in gross lending terms. In 2024, card lending faces little competition in the consumer credit landscape with almost two-thirds of gross lending attributed to card lending in Norway. While card lending decreased during the COVID-19 pandemic due to lower spending, there was a rebound post-pandemic as consumer lifestyles began to normalise. In 2024, card lending continued to strengthen amid improved levels of consumer confidence and...
