Report description:

Consumer credit continued to grow in Peru in 2024, albeit at moderate and lower levels than seen in the recent review period. This more moderate growth has been due to the improving economy in the country, thanks to greater GDP growth, inflation levels within the target range, and better job prospects. However, the economic recession that Peru experienced in 2023 significantly affected people's ability to pay their debts, which made them more cautious in taking out any type of credit and also ma...
