Report description:

Debit cards in Portugal showed strong growth in 2024, despite already-high penetration, with the number of cards recording double-digit rises. Cross-selling strategies allied to the change in the national payments ecosystem have boosted the positive trend, as has the growing preference for card usage over cash. Though inflation has pushed up prices, the use of debit cards for micropayments and daily routine payments contributed to a downturn in value per transaction, particularly for personal ca...
