Report description:

While debit cards in the Czech Republic registered another positive performance in 2024, circulation numbers and volume and current value transactions grew at more modest rates than in 2023. This was mainly due to increasing maturity, though the slowdown also reflected growing competition from open loop pre-paid cards, credit cards and electronic direct/ACH transactions that can be made via digital wallets or mobile apps and do not require financial cards. The pace of expansion remained robust o...
