Report description:

Dishwashers in Portugal experienced another year of retail volume decline over 2024, with category sales still normalising following the surge in new purchases during the pandemic. Subsequent years have seen a slowdown in new housing constructions and lower disposable income which has pushed sales of dishwashers into decline. Despite inflation falling, average prices continue to increase in dishwashers due to the premiumisation trend. As household penetration of dishwashers rises in Portugal, co...
