Report description:

Within financial cards and payments in Indonesia, 2024 was another year of strong growth for electronic payments, while card payments also remained positive in terms of transactions volume though its growth slowed down compared to that seen in 2023. High use of mobile banking, digital wallets and QRIS payments drove robust rises for electronic payments; by contrast, declining use of debit cards was the main reason for slowed growth for card payments. QRIS stands for Quick Response Code Indonesia...
