Report description:

Sales of fish and seafood continued to decline in retail volume terms in 2023 and 2024 with consumers being impacted by significant price increases. Fish and seafood producers have been affected by declining sales margins, with increasing production costs and high interest rates with many operators now requiring financing to develop their operations. In 2023, some operators lost margins in the foodservice channel as they had to sell stocks to avoid waste, thereby affecting their profitability. A...
