Report description:

Food preparation appliances continued to face volume sales decline over 2024 as demand remained weak following the surge in sales during the pandemic. In recent years, demand has been hampered by rising prices and the high cost of living of Portugal, especially since this is not an essential kitchen appliance. Many locals purchased food processors, blenders and mixers during the COVID-19 pandemic when consumers had more time to cook and bake. With normal life resumed in Portugal, consumers are e...
