Report description:

Sustainability remains an overarching trend in jeans during 2024, with brands such as H&M and Zara keen to demonstrate to consumers in Israel that the jeans they produce are sustainable. In 2021, H&M launched its re-purposed jeans collection in Israel by using left over fabric to create new collections showing their commitment towards sustainable clothing. In fact, when consumers buy jeans at H&M Israel the retailers clearly states online what the jeans are made from and who has made the product...
