Report description:

In 2024, jewellery in Argentina recorded a retail value sales increase by 79% in current terms. The strong devaluation implemented by the newly elected government, played a pivotal role in driving up inflation, which reached an accumulated rate of 211% for the year 2023. Inflationary pressures continued to be high throughout much of 2024, with prices increasing at a pace that far outstripped wage growth, particularly in the early months of the year. As a result, many consumers found their purcha...
