Report description:

Jewellery in Australia has returned to positive retail volume growth in 2024, indicating a cautious rebound from the challenging retail conditions that characterised the previous year. These conditions saw retail volumes decline in 2023, as higher interest rates led to lower consumer spending, and with reduced amounts of permissible discretionary spend being redirected to international leisure travel. However, in the 12 months to September 2024, the Consumer Price Index (CPI) by the Australian B...
