Report description:

In 2024, the retail value sales of menswear in Austria saw a modest increase of 2%, largely driven by higher prices. However, demand was challenged as consumers grappled with the ongoing cost of living crisis. With many focusing on essential purchases rather than non-essential fashion, retail volume growth in menswear sales saw a decline of 1%. However, employees' return to the office contributed to positive retail volume growth for men's suits, which recorded standout retail volume growth of 5%...
