Report description:

Retail volume sales of microwaves fell in 2024 for a third consecutive year due in part to the weak economy. Inflation and interest rate hikes have served to weaken household spending power. Swedes are more cautious in their purchase patterns and more price sensitive. According to the retailer NetonNet, Households chose to delay the purchase of microwaves until discount and promotional periods such as Black Friday. Trading down to lower priced brands and private label became more prevalent in 20...
