Report description:

Retail volume sales decreased in refrigeration appliances over 2024 due to weaker demand in the post-pandemic era. There was a spike in household purchases of refrigeration appliances at the height of the pandemic, but household spending priorities have shifted in the aftermath, with higher spending on activities, services and experiences in 2024. Investments in the kitchen are a relatively low priority by comparison. The weak economic climate has also been a hindrance to category performance, a...
