Report description:

Rising prices and a decline in disposable income are negatively impacting the soft drinks market in Serbia in 2024. Consumers are reassessing their purchases and prioritising essential items, making price an increasingly important factor in their purchasing decisions. With rising price sensitivity, more Serbians are opting for cost-effective soft drinks, including private label, which offers a desirable price-quality balance, as well as discounted products. They are also shifting towards healthi...
