Report description:

Over the review period, despite several years of stagnation for sports drinks in South Africa, several new brands have entered the local market, thereby improving consumer choice. These have included international and local names, such as Prime Hydration, Isofit, and Knox. This has created higher levels of competition, instead of the traditional select few established brands such as Energade and Powerade which dominate off-trade volume sales. In addition, major brands in other soft drinks, such...
