Report description:

In 2024, sportswear in Vietnam is expected to maintain dynamism, with a double-digit retail current value growth rate, thanks to an improved economic performance and the increasing health trend. However, ongoing wars globally continue to create an uncertain economic situation, leading some people to prioritise saving and cut back on their spending on non-essential items such as fashion-related items. As a result, many people have tended to wait for mega discounts of 50-70% from their favourite b...
