Report description:

2024 saw store cards in Canada benefit from increased investment in innovation and flexible features. With inflation still high, consumers continued to seek to save money on shopping. Retailers and store cards issuers have adapted to clients' demands by including appealing features to cards issued. For example, Home Depot launched a promotion whereby no interest is charged on a single transaction if paid in full within 24 months, and no interest is charged for any transactions if paid in full wi...
