Report description:

Store cards in Portugal witnessed its number of cards in circulation continue to fall in 2024, with the decline driven largely by retailers' cards shifting to the credit cards category. Transaction value rose marginally, however, boosted by improvements in available income as inflation subsided, and beneficial Euribor rates. Growth was still relatively low, though. Store cards is losing ground and this trend is set to persist throughout the forecast period as competition from other financial car...
