Report description:

Travel sales hit USD2.7 trillion in 2024, with new records set to be broken over the forecast period as travel powers on, despite high prices and meeting climate targets. Tourism demand is fired up by macroeconomic and sociodemographic trends as consumers prioritise experiences aligned with their passions and interests. Competition and digitalisation are intensifying in the advanced markets and Asia Pacific - the new travel power source.

Euromonitor International's The World Market for Travel global briefing offers an insight into to the size and shape of the Travel market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues. It identifies the leading companies and brands, offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market from innovation, pricing, channel distribution to economic/lifestyle influences. Forecasts illustrate how the market is set to change and outlines the criteria for success.

Product coverage: Booking, In-Destination Spending, Lodging (Destination), Tourism Flows, Travel Modes.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
