Report description:

In 2024, total volume sales of vegetables grew by 2%, impacted by rising prices. Several factors contributed to the significant price increases during the year, with drought and water shortages being the primary culprits affecting production, along with the high cost of irrigation water. Additionally, the resumption of exports to Mauritania had an impact. In 2023, Mauritania imposed customs duties on Moroccan exports to sub-Saharan countries, prompting local farmers to focus on domestic markets,...
