Report description:

Despite a challenging economic and demographic environment, sales of writing instruments in Spain remained stable in retail current value terms in 2024, with just a slight slowdown compared to 2023. However, the category continues to face significant headwinds, most notably from the country's declining birth rate. Couples are starting families later, having fewer children or opting not to have children altogether. This trend has resulted in fewer students entering schools, negatively affecting d...
