Report description:

In 2024, apparel and footwear specialists in Canada registered double-digit retail current value growth, despite a drop in the number of outlets. Inflationary pressure on prices supported retail current value growth as players tried to maximise profit margins amid store network streamlines. Nonetheless, apparel and footwear specialists like Winners, Aritzia and lululemon athletica saw a rebound in foot traffic towards the end of the review period, as consumers returned to physical stores, partic...
