Report description:

Apparel and footwear in the US experienced another year of low current value growth in 2024, although mixed results were seen once again, with high inflation continuing to shape consumers' spending habits. Luxury and mid-tier brands struggled as price-conscious shoppers gravitated toward lower-tier and discount retailers, where the appeal of bargain hunting remains strong. Meanwhile, athleisure giant lululemon athletica stood out with another positive year, proving its resilience in a challengin...
