Report description:

Israel's bleach market saw price rises slowed down in 2024. The category is characterised by limited price differentiation, as bleach is fundamentally a basic product with minimal scope for variation. This lack of diversity in product offerings forces brands to compete primarily on price. As a result, despite the broader economic pressures of rising inflation within the local market, bleach has seen little to no price growth. The need for affordability within the category has effectively slowed...
