Report description:

Bleach saw retail value sales stagnate in Romania in 2024. While bleach had a resurgence during the COVID-19 crisis as it was perceived to be a highly effective sanitiser, volume sales declined in the final three years of the review period. Indeed, volume sales fell below the levels seen immediately before the outbreak of COVID-19. The same preoccupation with health and wellness that drove sales during the pandemic is now exerting a negative impact on the demand for bleach. These products are pe...
