Report description:

In April 2024, taxes on beer, wine, and spirits were set to rise by 4.7%. However, the Government of Canada intervened to cap the increase at 2% until 2026, providing much-needed relief for bars and restaurants selling alcoholic beverages. This decision has allowed operators to maintain more stable pricing structures while preserving profitability, benefiting both businesses and consumers. By avoiding sharp price hikes, bars have been able to sustain demand without deterring customers, many of w...
