Report description:

In 2024, despite a complex and difficult economic and business context, direct selling in Argentina enjoyed a good performance, and was one of the most dynamic channels. Thanks to the rise of unemployment, many direct selling companies registered a strong increase in the number of resellers, which positively impacted value sales. Because of the economic situation, heavy pressure on purchasing power and increased unemployment, many women sought to earn extra money by working part-time for direct...
