Report description:

Following flat retail current value growth in 2023, direct selling in Canada posted only a marginal increase in 2024. There were significant divergences in performance within direct selling. For example, health and beauty, as well as drinks and tobacco and eyewear saw strong retail current value growth, while personal accessories and "other" products experienced fast declines.

Euromonitor International's Direct Selling in Canada report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Product coverage: Appliances and Electronics Direct Selling, Drinks and Tobacco Direct Selling, Fashion Direct Selling, Foods Direct Selling, Health and Beauty Direct Selling, Home Products Direct Selling, Other Products Direct Selling.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
