Report description:

Dishwashing in Mexico continued to grow in retail current value terms in 2024, favoured by the effects of inflation on the one hand, and by rising volume sales due to the increasing number of households in the country on the other. In hand dishwashing, value growth remained positive, but at a slower pace as the pandemic ended, with a greater number of Mexicans spending time away from home. For a growing consumer base looking for savings and convenience in home care, in 2024 competitiveness in te...
