Report description:

Inflationary pressures subsided in Norway over 2024, resulting in slower retail price growth of dishwashing products. Retail volume sales returned to growth following three years of decline. Nonetheless, the changes in household purchasing patterns are still evident as many consumers remained price sensitive. The propensity to shop around for the best deals remains strong, with households trading down to lower priced brands and private label continuing to make strong gains in 2024. Norwegians ha...
