Report description:

Eggs is expected to maintain solid total volume growth in India in 2024, although the rate of increase is set to be slower than seen in the previous few years. This is mainly due to increases in prices, with eggs set to see the strongest price rise within fresh food in 2024 - approaching double-digit growth. Despite price hikes, eggs remain a popular choice in the country, due to their affordability, high-quality protein, and nutritional value. They are versatile, easy to prepare, and widely use...
