Report description:

Following a period of significant disruptions, 2024 emerged as the most stable year for financial cards and payments in Denmark in a long time. The review period was marked by major upheavals, including the COVID-19 pandemic, which temporarily altered spending and payment habits, followed by a rebound as Danes returned to familiar patterns. The post-pandemic surge in foreign spending and other pent-up demand was compounded by the inflationary effects of the Russian invasion of Ukraine, leading t...
