Report description:

Paper payments were losing share to card and electronic direct/ACH transactions over the review period, which is expected to continue in the coming years, as the digitalisation of the industry continues to develop at a fast pace. This is also seeing m-commerce outperforming the overall market, with dynamic growth expected for both remote and proximity payments over the forecast period.

Euromonitor International's Financial Cards and Payments in Western Europe global briefing offers insight into the size and shape of the Payments and Lending market, highlights buzz topics, emerging geographies, categories and trends as well as pressing industry issues and white spaces. It identifies the leading companies and offers strategic analysis of key factors influencing the market. Forecasts provide an invaluable perspective on market evolution and the criteria for success. The briefing leverages Euromonitor International's 360-degree coverage of the global payments' landscape including insight on consumer debt.

Product coverage: Consumer Lending, E-Commerce in Proximity Location by Industry, Financial Cards and Payments.
