Report description:

In 2024, full-service restaurants in Austria recorded a 5% increase in foodservice value sales. These establishments continued to dominate the restaurant scene, but also saw a slight decline in the number of outlets, in contrast to the significant growth observed in limited-service restaurants. As operating costs rose and challenges in finding staff increased, limited-service concepts became more appealing to operators. Additionally, the price level in full-service restaurants began to deter som...
