Report description:

In 2024, home care has seen modest growth in demand, with urban areas outperforming rural regions. Hygiene and cleanliness practices have increased, driving higher demand across household, corporate, and commercial sectors, including food service. Low-income consumers, served predominantly by informal retail channels, are emerging as a key market segment. While brand development has been slow, local companies are gaining market share from established leaders like Unilever and R&B, with product v...
