Report description:

Home care in Brazil maintained growth in both retail volume and current value terms in 2024, with increases seen across most categories. However, still feeling the residual effects of inflation, which hit the country over the last few years, many Brazilian consumers were willing to trade down when it came to home care products, leading the industry to see stronger growth in retail volume terms than in current value terms in this year. The rising number of warehouse club outlets enabled consumers...
