Report description:

Home care saw marginal growth in both volume and value sales in Canada in 2024, having seen value growth driven by significant price increases in the previous year. In 2024, demand was dampened by consumers reining in and cutting back on spending in response to the increased cost of living, including high prices for essentials such as groceries and housing. Consumers were more cautious and deliberate in their spending, looking for discounts and promotions from retailers and turning to private la...
