Report description:

Home care in the Philippines maintained growth in both retail volume and current value terms in 2024, although rates of increase were lower after a year of exceptional growth in 2023. However, all categories maintained growth, with no significant differences in growth rates. The industry witnessed a transformative phase in 2024, characterised by players prioritising profits over market share amidst economic pressures. With inflation impacting consumer spending, brands increasingly focused on val...
