Report description:

Development in Australia's laundry care market was driven by economic trends in 2024. Financial pressures in Australia have significantly influenced purchasing habits generally, and notably so in the laundry care category. More local consumers are turning to private label products such as Aldi's Trimat and Almat, which have experienced strong growth due to their affordability and consistent quality. This shift reflects a broader trend of downtrading, as households prioritise cost-effective optio...
