Report description:

In line with government initiatives to regulate inflation there was a notable decline in the price per wash when it came to laundry detergents in 2024. All manufacturers reduced their prices to comply with the regulations and to remain competitive, with the price declines ranging from EUR0.03-EUR0.05 per wash being evidenced across all brands. These price declines had a positive effect on volume sales while it also contributed towards the recovery of premium brands which became more affordable a...
