Report description:

Sales of polishes continued to decline in current value and retail volume terms in 2024, driven by a reduction in demand and more moderate price increases compared to the previous two years. Shoe polish, which accounts for the largest share of category sales, witnessed a reduction in demand. This decline in demand was influenced by the increasing use of sports footwear, even in the workplace. Furthermore, consumers are using other types of cleaners like surface care products and even the magical...
