Report description:

Polishes saw robust growth in retail current value sales over the course of the review period, with retail value sales fairly evenly split between shoe polish, floor polish and furniture polish. However, growth in retail current value sales slowed during the latter part of the review period, and this trend continued in 2024. Competing products, such as surface care, increasingly offer cleaning properties that are similar to polishes. Many local consumers perceive surface care products as more ve...
