Report description:

Unlike most other areas of home care, sales of polishes failed to take off during the COVID-19 pandemic with consumers paying more attention to cleaning and sanitising their homes more than polishing. Although the pandemic is now over polishing is still considered a secondary chore compared to cleaning and hygiene and therefore with money being tight sales of polishes continued to decline in retail volume terms in 2024. Another challenge for the category is the fact that many of the modern mater...
