Report description:

Retail registered current value growth in Greece in 2024. Inflation had a significant impact on the market during the year, with prices constantly rising. As a result, consumers became more price conscious and chased low prices and offers. However, they were also looking for good quality and sustainable products, as long as they did not exceed the prices that they were willing to pay. Therefore, supermarkets invested in the development of their private label offers by introducing organic and gen...
