Report description:

Vending in Bulgaria saw a marginal decline in 2024, mainly due to increasing competition from convenience stores, street stalls, and kiosks. As consumers seek quick and affordable food and beverage options, many have turned to these alternative channels, which often provide a wider selection of products and a more engaging shopping experience.

Euromonitor International's Vending in Bulgaria report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Product coverage: Appliances and Electronics Vending, Drinks and Tobacco Vending, Fashion Vending, Foods Vending, Health and Beauty Vending, Home Products Vending, Other Products Vending.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
