Report description:

The total value of vending stagnated in 2024 after a rollercoaster-like development during the review period. There was a decline during the COVID-19 years due to fewer people moving around, as many vending machines are located in travel and transport locations. This was followed by growth after COVID-19 due to life normalising, especially in 2023.

Euromonitor International's Vending in Finland report offers insight into key trends and developments driving the industry. The report examines all retail channels to provide sector insight. Channels include hypermarkets, supermarkets, discounters, convenience stores, mixed retailers, health and beauty retailers, clothing and footwear retailers, furniture and furnishing stores, DIY and hardware stores, durable goods retailers, leisure and personal goods retailers. There are profiles of leading retailers, with analysis of their performance and the challenges they face. There is also analysis of non-store retailing: vending; homeshopping; internet retailing; direct selling, as available.

Product coverage: Appliances and Electronics Vending, Drinks and Tobacco Vending, Fashion Vending, Foods Vending, Health and Beauty Vending, Home Products Vending, Other Products Vending.

Data coverage: market sizes (historic and forecasts), company shares, brand shares and distribution data.
