Report description:

The Saudi Arabia Kitchen Furniture Market is expected to register a CAGR of 10.2% during the forecast period.

The abrupt post-COVID-19 pandemic has drastically altered the kitchen furniture sector. After the pandemic, commercial works also started, and with this, there's an increment in the revenue from the kitchen furniture market. People are out, traveling, and going to work so commercial kitchens in hotels and restaurants also help to grow the market. Saudi Arabia, which relies heavily on imports for its furniture, has been severely impacted by supply chain delays and the temporary restriction on global trade.

The kitchen is a commonly utilized area in the house and is regarded as the home's central hub. As Saudi Arabian families get smaller and individuals live in smaller apartments, there is an increasing need to maximize space efficiency, which leads to an increase in the demand for kitchen equipment. Kitchens are made up of a variety of cabinets and fixtures that are organized in a systematic way to maximize the utilization of kitchen space.

The Saudi Arabian kitchen furniture sector has grown to be one of the most vibrant and fastest-growing in the Gulf Cooperation Council (GCC). The country's real estate market is being driven by a growing number of real estate developments and rising demand for residential property, as well as government attempts to expand socioeconomic infrastructure. The demand is addressed by importing furniture products since local producers are experiencing a shortage of raw materials and parts essential for making kitchen furniture products. Foreign players' increasing interest and investment, whether to expand their presence or expand into new emirates, is boosting the country's kitchen furniture business. The demand for online furniture is expanding as internet penetration rises.

The media has also played a significant role in the growing demand for furniture. Consumers can acquire new and unique ideas for redecorating their homes from a variety of TV shows and periodicals that focus on kitchen furnishings. E-commerce has played a crucial role in the promotion and advertising of furniture products across the country. In Saudi Arabia, the summer season is popular among buyers for kitchen design because of many events, such as weddings and the start of Ramadan. Most kitchen items in Saudi Arabia are imported from other countries, with prices determined by the overall design of the kitchen.

Saudi Arabia Kitchen Furniture Market Trends

Rising Housing Construction Helping to boost the Market

The kitchen furniture market is growing due to the construction sector growth in Saudi Arabia. The construction industry in Saudi Arabia is expected to grow in the next few years as the nation's population continues to grow. As the population continues to grow, so does the need for infrastructure and housing. As a result, the construction industry is expected to grow over the next few years. The demand for kitchen furniture is driven by residential and foreign buyers who are investing in modern and innovative residential apartments.

Distribution Through e-Commerce is Likely to Grow at a Faster Rate

Saudi Arabia is emerging as the hub for e-commerce in the Middle East and North Africa (MENA) region. Due to increased mobile penetration and technological advancements such as big data and artificial intelligence, Saudi Arabia has shown a significant interest in online buying; in the hot climate of Saudi Arabia, convenience is the primary driver of internet growth. Because of the easy transportation offered by market giants like Amazon, Danube, and Ikea, the number of internet users in the country is expanding. People are using the online channel to order kitchen cabinets and other things. However, the offline segment continues to dominate the market; people prefer to shop in physical stores and design their kitchens in showrooms. Contractors have an impact on the Saudi Arabian market's kitchen designs as well.

Saudi Arabia Kitchen Furniture Industry Overview

The market for kitchen furniture in Saudi Arabia is mildly fragmented, with several local and international companies. The demand for Italian and German kitchen furniture makers is growing in popularity. Most of the players produce outside of Saudi Arabia. Some of the key players in the Saudi Arabia Kitchen Furniture market are Ikea, Saudi Kitchen Line Company, Snaidero, AlKhaleejion Kitchens, Pedini, Oakcraft Kitchen Cabinets, Kitchen Net, Al Joaib Group, KAFCO Kitchens, Al Farsi Aluminum Kitchens, and Other prominent players.
