Key Highlights

Factory Mutual Insurance Company, is a leading mutual insurance firm specializing in commercial property insurance and loss prevention services. Established in 1835, the company is headquartered in Johnston, Rhode Island, USA. With a strong global presence, FM Global operates offices worldwide, providing tailored insurance solutions to clients in more than 100 countries. The company primarily serves large corporations, offering them risk management strategies to safeguard their assets against fire, natural disasters, and other potential threats.

FM Global focuses on property insurance and risk assessment, utilizing an engineering-based approach to minimize losses. The company emphasizes loss prevention through detailed site evaluations and recommendations for risk improvement. This strategy is rooted in the belief that most property losses can be prevented through proper engineering and risk management practices. By conducting thorough risk assessments, FM Global helps businesses identify vulnerabilities and implement preventive measures to enhance operational resilience.

A key aspect of FM Global's expertise is its commitment to research and innovation. The company operates a 1,600-acre Research Campus in West Glocester, Rhode Island, where extensive testing is conducted on fire hazards, explosions, and other risk factors. This scientific approach enables FM Global to develop data-driven solutions that help businesses mitigate risks effectively. With a client base that includes over one-third of Fortune 1000 companies, FM Global remains a trusted partner for businesses seeking reliable property insurance and risk management solutions to ensure long-term stability and continuity.
